

Dear Friends:

One runner runs to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to tell the king of Babylon that the city is taken on every side. Jeremiah 51:31

As I looked out the chapel window, I saw one of the many trucks that pass by. It was not just any truck; it was a postal courier truck. Suddenly, I remembered, while we are not called couriers or mail deliverers, we deliver the greatest message of all time, the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the world. As the chaplain at the Flying J Travel Center, I am a courier, a mailman, delivering the message of salvation.

Supporters, prayer warriors, friends, it has been my blessing to have known our directors, Don and Suzanne, and prayed for them in this ministry, now 30 years. It has also been my joy to have been a chaplain close to 20 of those years and blest to carry the greatest message, "Jesus Saves". Please continue to support and pray for this ministry 'til Jesus comes. Pray for Maxine and I in these challenging times and all who come through here. They need the message of true life in Christ.

Friends in Christ, you may have been surprised at such a verse above around Thanksgiving time. But I am challenged every day at the attitude of so many I meet who don't realize that we are in a battle that Satan appears to be winning. While he may win battles, Jesus Christ is the Champion. He has blessed us to be God's servants and to lead many to the Saviour for salvation and encouragement. There is still room for more.

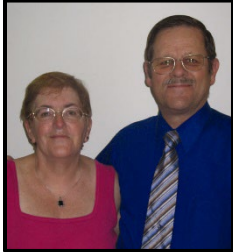

Many years ago, I went to the post for Christ. In Exodus 21:6, it tells of the slave who loved his master and wanted to stay with him. My prayer is to serve my Saviour until He comes or I go to be with Him. So, we fight on to win is the battle, and encourage one another to also carry the message of hope in Christ. Will you courier with me? And with ORC? God is calling out servants who will serve Him.

In the verse at the top of page one, we learn of Babylon the Great, defeated. Satan's time is coming soon. Do you long for that day? Please pray for some I talk to fairly regularly, (Shawn, Serge, Hailey, Godson, Jim, Lorie and Martin). God knows their hearts and is able to convict them for Christ and encouragement.

Thirty years seems like a long time when you look ahead, but looking back there are so many memories of God's amazing grace, of salvations, of those of you have supported us from our joining time. The war is not over. We must serve 'til we can no more or Christ returns. Thank you. You are precious. You are appreciated. You are prayed for.

God bless you. Thank you for your prayers and support.
