

Easter 2024

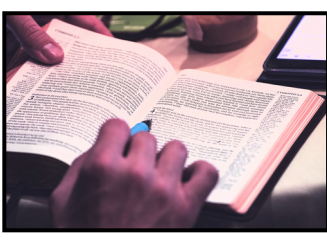

Dear ORC Family and Friends:

The Biblical clock points to the celebration of the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. A memory of a conversation I had with a driver returns to me.

It was a beautiful, warm, sunny evening and I was sitting in my chair beside the mobile chapel. It was the time of the evening when trucks were coming for fuel and drivers were relaxing after a busy day on the road. A driver closed the door on his truck and walked toward the chapel. He paused and quietly read the information on the side of the chapel. Then without hesitation, he turned, walked away, and said nothing. He was a tall man and was wearing an orange-coloured turban. He walked solemnly to the doors of the truck stop and disappeared with the other drivers that were heading inside the facility. Something about his personal features stuck out in my mind.

Several hours later, the same man walked toward the chapel. I braced myself for a possible controversial conversation. He simply sat down in the chair beside me and started our conversation with a host of questions, beginning in the Old Testament through to the New Testament. Eventually he introduced himself as "Steve", and then slowly shared his spiritual journey. "Neighbour give my family Bibles and invite my family to Bible study." The first thought that went through my mind was, "How effective could this be? Why would you simply give this family Bibles, tell them to read them and then invite them to a Bible study?" His next words brought me to deep conviction. "My family go to Bible study. We read Bible. My family now live by words of Bible." I was over-whelmed by the authority of the Holy Spirit, and I asked, "Was personal salvation explained to you?" His response answered my question. Seeing his limited knowledge of the Scriptures, I shared the plan of salvation with him. He eagerly invited Christ into his life personally. Before he returned to his truck, I offered a special prayer for Steve and his family, knowing the severe challenges they would face from their immediate family and friends. THANK YOU, SUPPORTERS, FOR ALLOWING ME TO HELP STEVE ON HIS JOURNEY WITH CHRIST.

In the quiet hours of the morning, I was remembering Steve on his journey. He and his family will join the faithful in the celebration of Easter Sunday and Christ's victory over death. THANK YOU, SUPPORTERS, FOR GUIDING STEVE AND HIS FAMILY ON THEIR SPIRITUAL JOURNEY.

This is just ONE of the many exciting testimonies of men and women in the world of trucking that have been touched by the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Many would bring tears to your eyes. Drivers return to their wives and families changed by the power of the Gospel. Homes are filled with joy, with tears banished and replaced by the joy of a new life.
